The term 'subaltern' in its modern usage, stands for the downtrodden or Dalit Class, socially and economically weaker section of any society and also for the minority ethnic and cultural group. The encounter with the 'Subaltern' is a process of self- discovering. It is an effort to own and acknowledge the face of one race in particular. It is equally a search to find ways open to the flood gates of freedom and liberation for neglected segment of the population-tribal, Dalit, women, minorities that seek an equal status with the rest of the people of majority.
